Launched in 2014, Argentous was the first Jeanneau 64, with a complete interior refit in winter 2016/17 she looks like new. Outdoor living and entertaining is a breeze thanks to a grill on the aft deck and large cockpit tables creating the ultimate holiday dining experience.

Layout

In the cockpit there is plenty of space to lounge around and twin tables for exterior dining, she has a spray hood, bimini, cockpit cushions and sunbathing mats. As you enter through the companion way you arrive into the saloon, to your right is the bunk cabin, suitable for children, forward are two identical double cabins with en-suites, and heading round to the rear, you pass through the galley & day head and into the spacious master cabin with en-suite. The crew cabin is accessed on the foredeck.

Performance

Born of a close partnership between Philippe Briand and Andrew Winch, the Jeanneau 64 features elegant lines with classic proportions. Contemporary deck styling gives the yacht a timeless appeal. Every Jeanneau Yacht is designed to be a sailor's yacht, and the Jeanneau 64, is no exception. This flagship is secure, fast, and enjoyable to sail. Philippe Briand has delivered a modern hull that incorporates a hard chine for increased speed, stability and interior volume.
